RUSSIANS SAY THERE WAS NO GREAT FIGHT

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15 .- Out of the maze of conflicting reports regarding the sequence of events leading up to the destruction of the Petropavlovsk it is now established that Vice Admiral Makaroff, that they would be brave enough to send early Wednesday morning, took out his squadron to engage a weak division of six entrance of Port Arthur harbor. The sub-Japanese cruisers which appeared on the horizon after the Japanese torpedo boats, which sank the Bezstrashni, had been driven off by the Bayan.
